IMAP Nominates new Member Firm for Austria

LEVEL FIVE Consulting in Vienna serves the market for mergers & acquisitions.

Tampa Bay, Florida (May 15, 2008) – The International Network of M&A Partners (IMAP) announces the admission of a new member firm from Austria into its organization. LEVEL FIVE has been selected for Austria and joined IMAP after successfully completing an extensive qualification process. This brings additional high quality advisors into the IMAP organization and will help to better serve clients in Austria.

“LEVEL FIVE’s acceptance into IMAP completes and strengthens our already strong presence in the Middle European region. We are very pleased to welcome a team, which exactly provides the credentials and track record of top M&A professionals for mid-market transactions,” said IMAP president Mark Esbeck at IMAP’s recent meeting in Washington DC, USA. IMAP ranked No. 4 in the world in middle market completed transactions up to $50 million in 2007 according to Thomson Financial leagues tables.

Heinz Brasic co-founder of LEVEL FIVE commented, “With this integration into IMAP, we now offer the global coverage for cross-border M&A deals, and it makes us well positioned to serve our Austrian clients around the globe. It is key for us to be part of the world’s largest M&A organization as mid-market clients require best-in-class services and their related international transactions are developing rapidly in this region of the European Union.”
